

o p e n a c c e s s
2 0 2 0

13th Berlin Open Access Conference
21-22 March 2017

Introductions: Signatories, Participants and Observers

Colleen Campbell, Max Planck Digital Library

Introductions

Herman B. Wells Library
Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana (USA)

Introductions

open access

View from the Biblioteca delle Oblate
Florence, Italy

Introductions

Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences

Staging the Open Access Transformation of Subscription Journals

Open Access 2020 is an international initiative that aims to induce the swift, smooth and scholarly-oriented transformation of today's scholarly journals from subscription to open access publishing

Key Outcomes of B12

Expression of Interest

- Published with list of initial signatories on 21 March 2016
- Domain <http://oa2020.org/>
- Seeking further institutional signatories

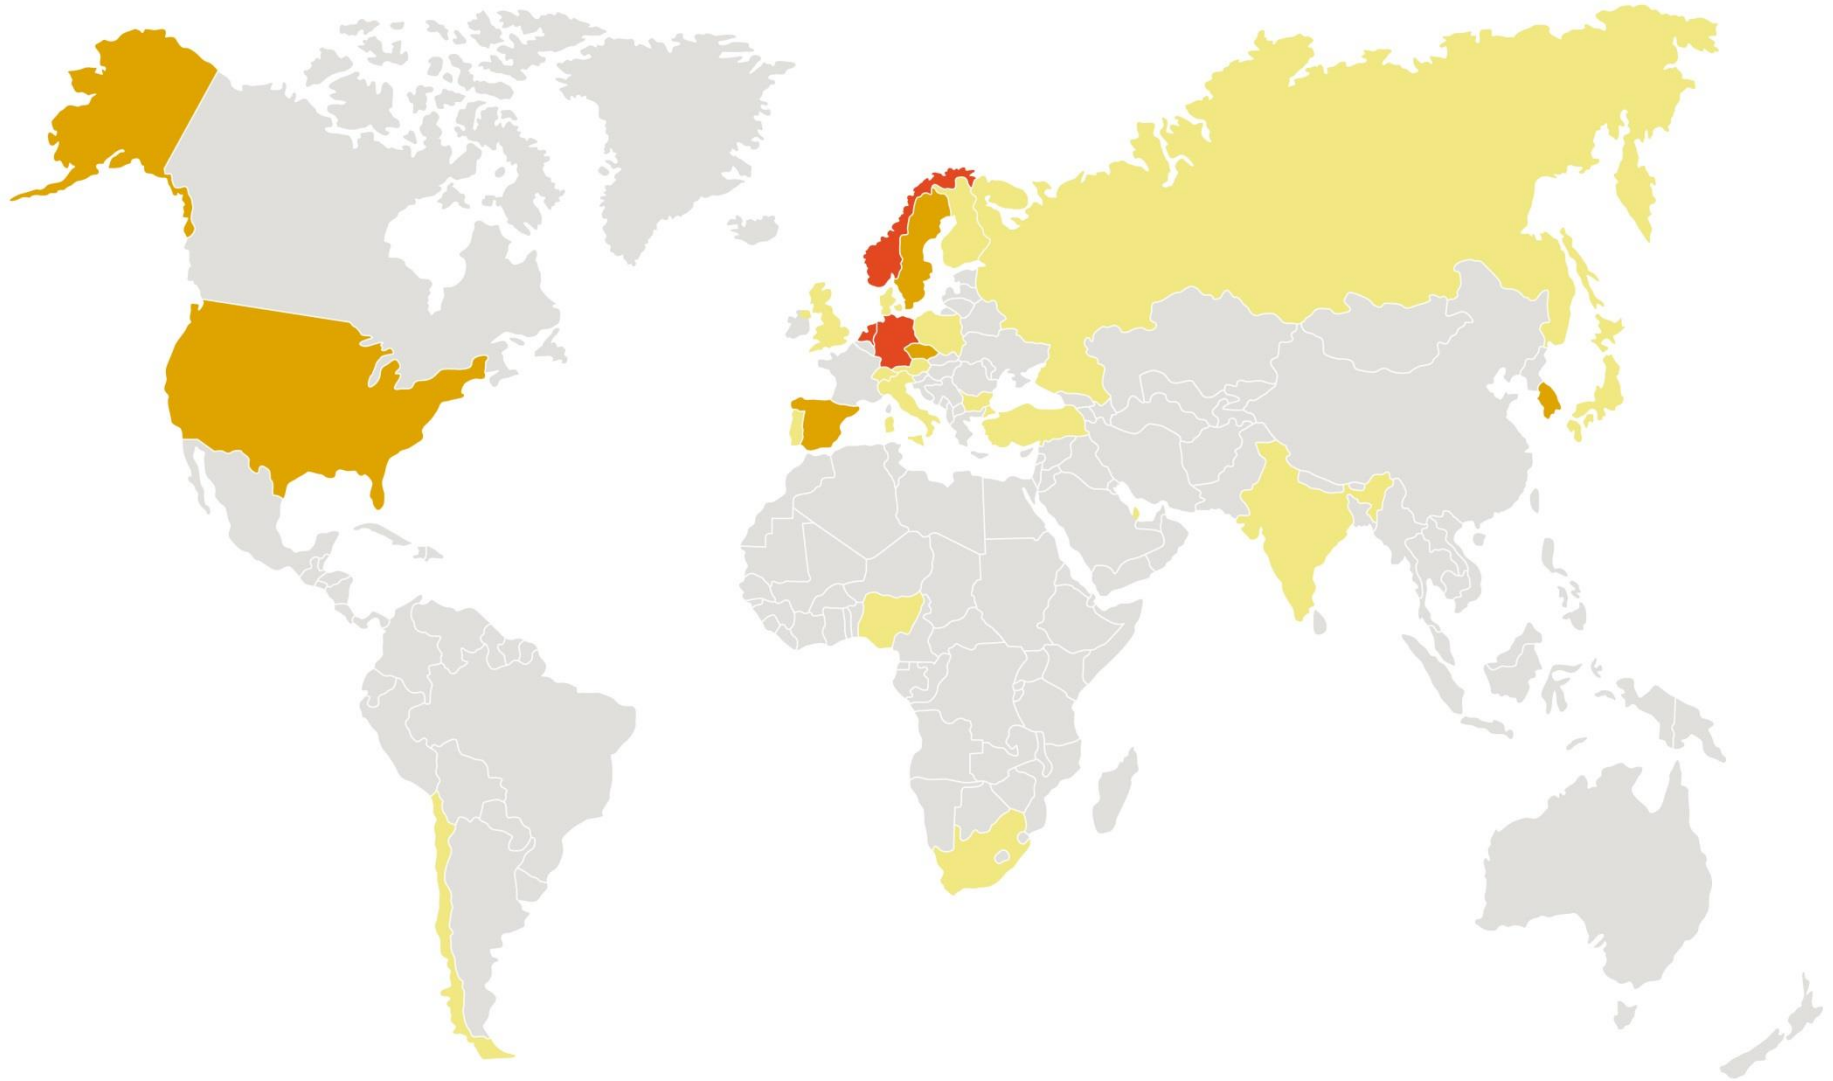

Establish National Contact Points (NCPs) in your country

- Use and extend the local networks in your country
- Work with your national committees and governance structures
- Start meaningful & targeted lobbying

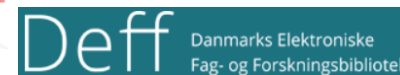

Create a Global Governance structure

Define Roadmap

Signatories of the Expression of Interest

81 Signatories as of today

FONDAZIONE

University of California Signatories

“The OA2020 Initiative has received widespread and strong faculty endorsement.”

“We believe thatOA2020 will offer measurable benefits to both academia and society as a whole.”

“We call on key stakeholders including institutions, funders, professional societies, publishers, journals, and authors to participate with us in a broader discussion of these ends and means....”

<http://news.lib.berkeley.edu/2017/03/20/oa2020/>
<https://oa2020.us/>

Building Momentum at B13

EUROPEAN COMMISSION
DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR RESEARCH & INNOVATION
The Director-General

Declaration of Support on the occasion of the 13th Berlin Open Access Conference

As the experience of the Wellcome Trust and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has shown, funding agencies play a key role to speed up the transition to full Open Access since they hold the purse. For this reason I call upon all funders of research to step forward and take a lead role. The Berlin gathering offers a great occasion for this.

I wish you a successful conference.

Kind regards,

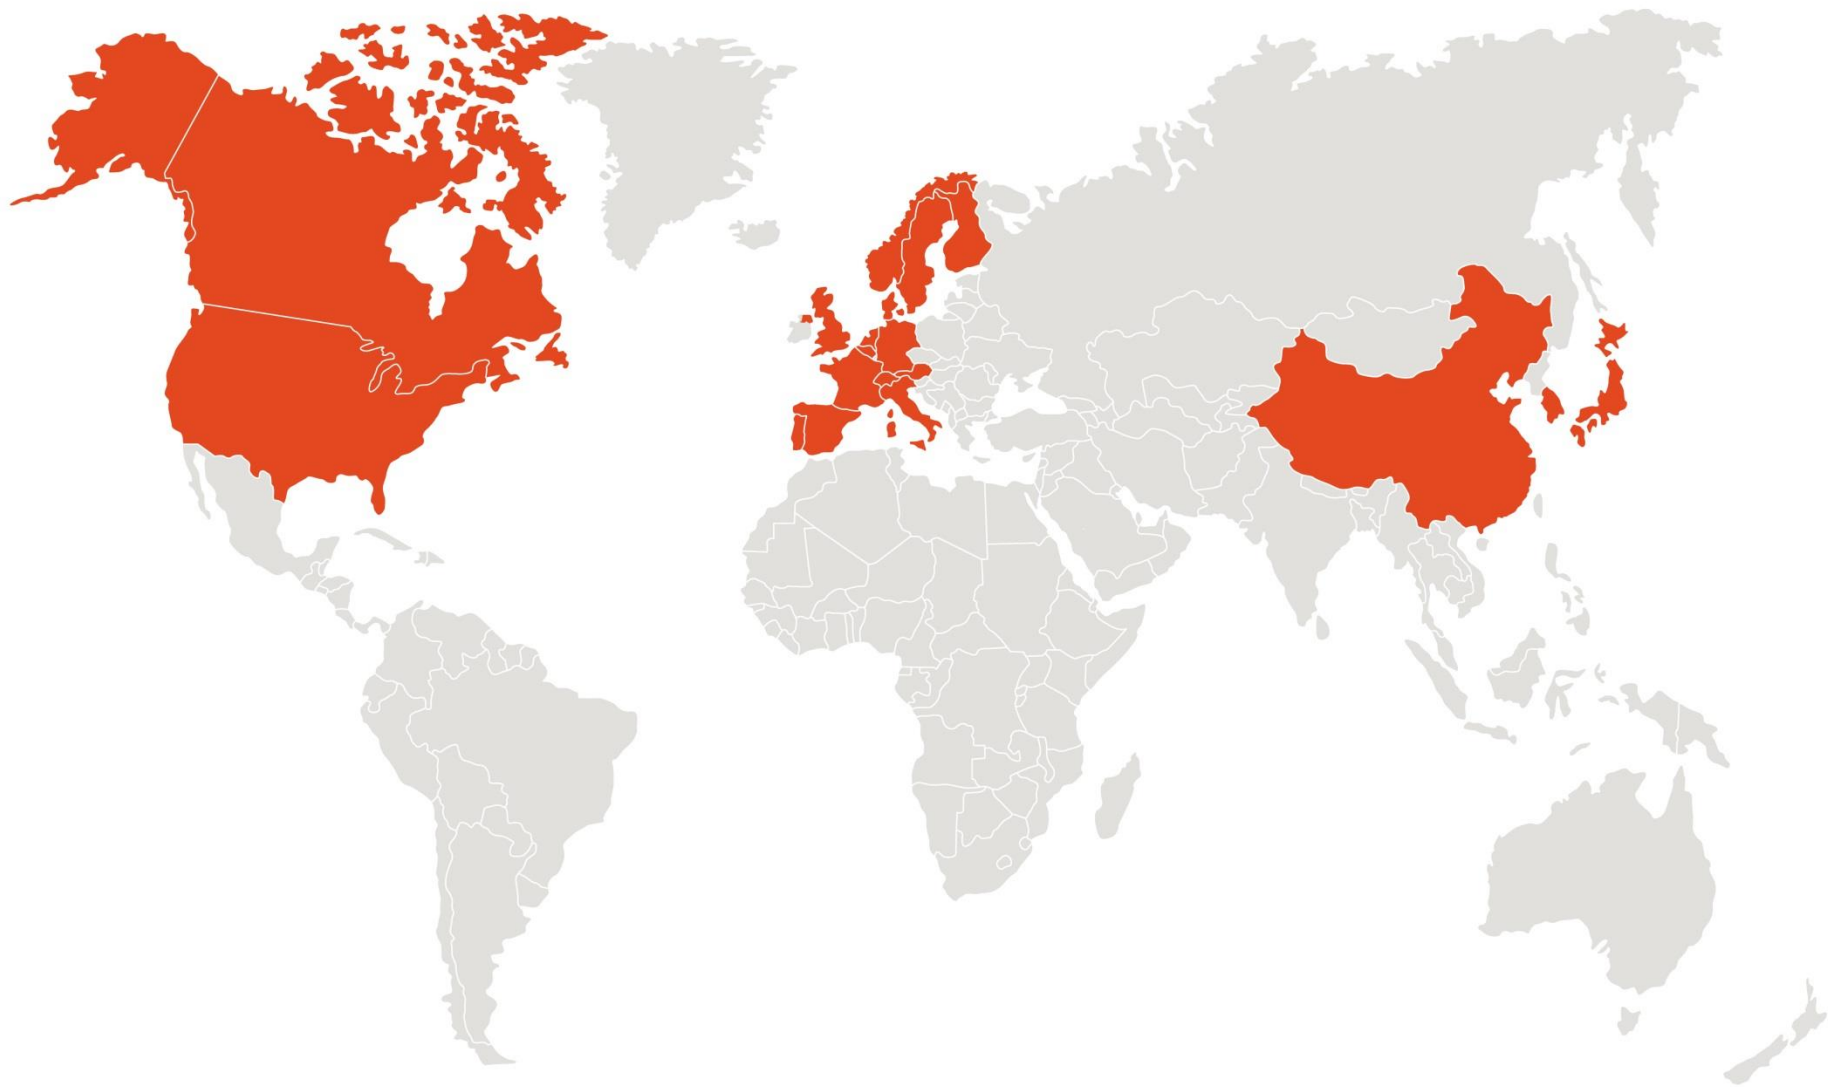

Robert-Jan Smits

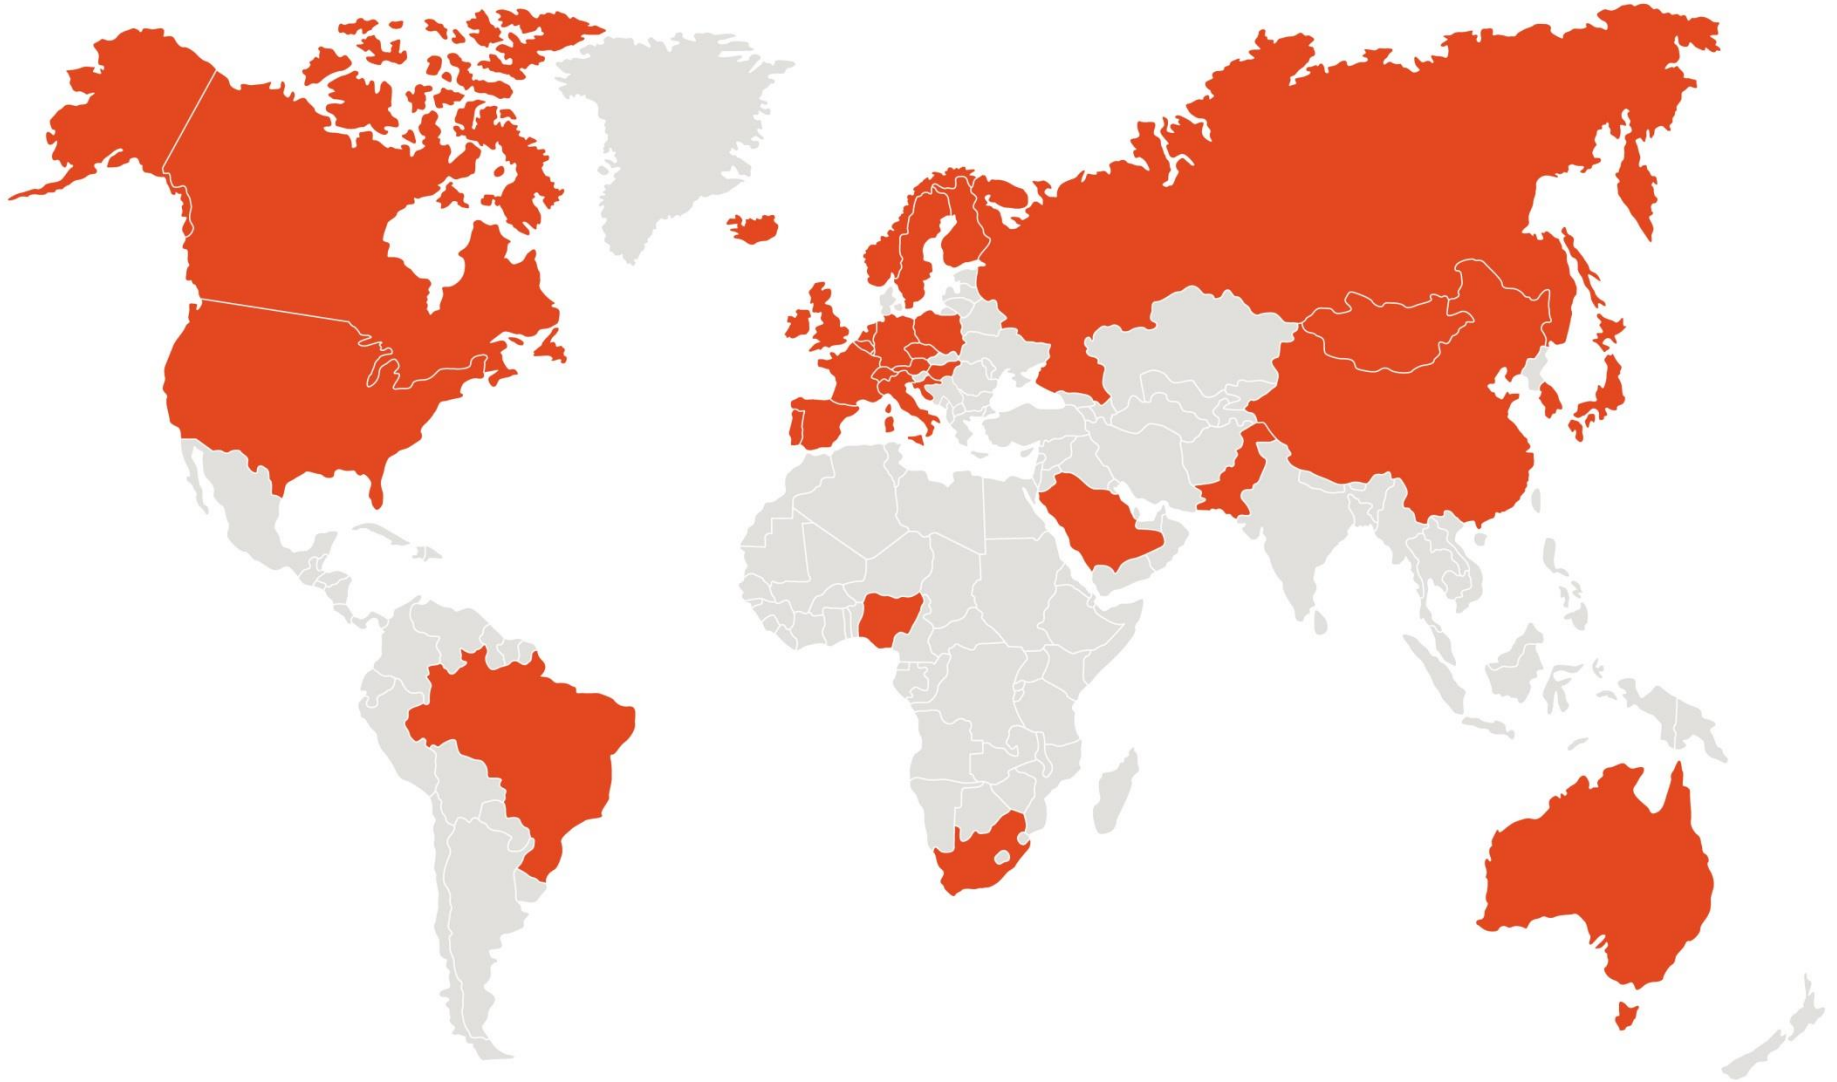

Countries participating in the Berlin12 Conference

open access

2020

Countries participating in the Berlin13 Conference

OA2020 Stakeholders at B13

University Associations
University Conferences
Universities

National and Regional Library Consortia

Library Associations

National Libraries

University Libraries

OA2020 Stakeholders at B13

International Research Councils

National Research Councils

International Research Societies and Organizations

Research Institutes

OA2020 Stakeholders at B13

Funding Agencies
Government Bodies
OA Advocacy Organizations

Publisher Associations

Publishers

Service providers

Individuals

Key Objectives B13

Expression of Interest

- Published with list of initial signatories on 21 March 2016
- Domain <http://oa2020.org/>
- Seeking further institutional signatories (total of 81 as of today)

Establish National Contact Points (NCPs) in your country

- Use and extend the local networks in your country
- Work with your national committees and governance structures
- Start meaningful & targeted lobbying

Create a Global Governance structure

Define Roadmap

Onward!

o p e n a c c e s s
2 0 2 0

o p e n a c c e s s
2 0 2 0

